Code of Ethics

The Association of Interior Design Professionals members are to uphold the highest levels of personal and business ethics. Professional integrity shall be one of the hallmarks of our organization which is dedicated to furthering the interior design industry. All AIDP members agree to know and use the correct appellation and logo.

Membership Requirements

A business partner must be a local, regional, or nationally recognized company that offers to-the-trade pricing for design-related products or services to AIDP designers. An applicant must exhibit a willingness to promote services and products to AIDP members in a manner which creates enhanced business value for the designer.

Membership Eligibility

Who is eligible to join AIDP as a Partner member? Interior Design Related Companies, Educators, Industry Business Sponsors, Retail and Wholesale Showrooms, Manufacturers, Sales Representatives, Paint Companies, Builders, Contractors, Remodelers, Fabricators, Trade Organizations, and Specialty Expert Service Providers.

Marketing Opportunities

The Association of Interior Design Professionals has established a means for communication, connection and participation between Partners and our Interior Designers. Because people purchase from companies they know, like, and trust, it is the desire of AIDP to create a vendor data base of trusted suppliers and business professionals, as well as the opportunity for vendors to provide new product information and solutions for designer's needs.

AIDP Partner Benefits

All Chapter, Business, Preferred and Premier partners, will receive the following member benefits. Additional marketing benefits are available for the Preferred and Premier Partner Levels.

- Usage of AIDP Partner Logo in advertising and promotional materials
- The partner's company listing in "members-only section" of the AIDP National website with a link back to your company's website.
- In the "members-only section" of the AIDP National website, a 100-word personal advertisement with one logo and three marketing photos. This will give the Partner members the perfect opportunity to get their message out to their target market, our AIDP designers.

We created two Partner Membership categories of Chapter Partner and Business Partner so that any large corporation or small independent business would have a fair and equitable opportunity to become a member and do business with AIDP Designers. We also have created two additional categories of Preferred Partner and Premier Partner membership so partners could benefit from additional marketing opportunities over and above the Chapter Level and Business Level categories.

AIDP Chapter Partner Level - $240.00: This level of membership was established for local chapter businesses, independent sales reps, and/or expert service providers such as independent business owners; i.e., Photographers, Painters, Faux Artists, Installers, and Drapery Workrooms. Chapter Partners who choose to network and participate with a local chapter will have to also pay chapter dues if required by the chapters in which they choose to participate.

AIDP Business Partner Level - $600.00: A business that markets on a national level may apply as a Business Partner and receive a minimum of one (1) advertising opportunity annually in our E-Network communications. Business Partners who choose to network and participate with a local chapter will have to also pay chapter dues if required by the chapters in which they choose to participate.

AIDP Preferred Partner Level - $2,500.00: A business that markets on a national level may apply as a Preferred Partner and receives a minimum of four (4) advertising opportunities annually in our E-Network communications to AIDP Designers.

AIDP Premier Partner Level - $5,000.00: A business that markets on a national level may apply as a Premier Partner and has the added benefit of marketing to our AIDP Designers through our E-Network and receives a minimum of twelve (12) advertising opportunities annually, and will receive a direct clickable link to our front page of the AIDP website, as well as be listed on all collateral marketing communications.

All AIDP Partners: Partners that are interested in AIDP membership are encouraged and welcome to visit an AIDP Chapter meeting to observe the added benefits of marketing and networking at the AIDP Chapter Level. Participation at the Local Chapter Level requires that partners pay the AIDP Local chapter membership dues if required by the chapter in which they choose to participate.
